Rocks news

By CASSIE BALDWIN

It was quite rainy over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Tweedy are now living at their home in Irwin, Tenn. A speedy recovery is wished for him.

Wish to say, Mrs. Irma Lee Woody and not Irwin Woody was at church last Sunday after returning from the hospital.

Congratulation to Miss Sabrina Richardson who won a portrait of Elvis Presley at Moses Motor Company of Appomattox on last Saturday.

Congratulation to FBLA members from Rocks who won first place at the Longwood Region Conference on March 8 in the Parlimentary law. They were: Debbie Roach and Debbie Harris. The winners will be represented at the 30th state Leadership Conference at Hotel Roanoke on April 18-19.

Tammy Irby attended Girl Scout week last week at Appomattox Skate World.

Not very many churches of the Appomattox Association showed up last Tuesday for the Prayer Retreat. You missed a wonderful speaker.

Larry McFadden is back home from Southside Hospital, Farmville. May he have a speedy recovery.

Group I met at Elon Church on March 16 about the Refugee Program to get organized and name the officers for their group. They were: Mrs. Ethel St. John, chairman, Mrs. Florence Hix, secretary and Mrs. Louise Roach, Treasurer. Nine churches of this group already committed at this time. The group seems to be excited about this work and much will be accomplished if you work together.

The annual W.M.U. spring meeting at Midway Church on May 8, 5:30 to 6:30 afternoon session, 6:30 - dinner. Bring a covered dish. 7:30 - 9:00 afternoon session. Mrs. A. Harrison Gregory, W.M.U. President will be the guest speaker. The second guest is a mixed ensemble, the "Heirborn", from the Calvary Baptist Church in Winston-Salem, N.C. By all means try to attend, if possible.

Glad Mrs. C. W. Slayton is back home after a long stay in the hospital in Richmond. She returned Saturday much improved.

Get well wishes go out to Mr. Judson Morris of Appomattox who is in the hospital.

Glad to see Mrs. W. R. Moore at church Sunday for preaching service after being sick since early part of February.

Mrs. Clarence Richardson and Mrs. Gladys Harvey were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Richardson and Mike of Pamplin on Sunday.
